Sam McAllister, a laurel county character, was hit by passenger No. 20, near Corbin. He was asleep on the track and was knocked some distance away, and though the train crew and passengers hunted for nearly an hour nothing but his hat could be found. He crawled home and will likely recover.

In Mercer county Forrest Alford shot and instantly killed William Overstreet. Both are farmers and the trouble dates from last fall, when Overstreet killed several turkeys belonging to Mrs. Alford and then sent Alford word to come and drive the others off his place. When Alford went after them, it is claimed Overstreet threatened to kill him and followed him to the road with a shot gun in his hands. The men met in the highway when Overstreet drew a knife and advanced on Alford, saying he intended to kill him. Alford then drew a pistol and fired five times, every shot taking effect.

THE DEATHS OF THE APOSTLES.

It is generally believed that only one of Christ's apostles, John, escaped martyrdom, dying a natural death at Ephesus, where his tomb is still shown among the ruins. Matthew is supposed to have been slain with a sword in Ethiopia. James, the son of Zebedee, was beheaded at Jerusalem (Acts 12:2). James, the brother of our Lord, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple and then beaten to death with a fuller's club. Philip was hanged up against a pillar at Hierapolis, a city of Phrygia. Bartholomew was flayed alive at Albanopolis, in Armenia. Andrew suffered martyrdom on a cross at Patrae, in Achaia. Thomas was run through the body with a lance at Coramandel, in the East Indies. Thaddeus was shot to death with arrows. Simon Zelotes was crucified in Persia. Peter was crucified, head downward it is said, during the Neeronian persecution. Matthias was first shot and then beheaded, and Paul was beheaded in Rome by order of the tyrant Nero. Judas Iscariot, after the betrayal of our Lord, hung himself. Of the two Evangelists, who were not apostles, it is recorded that Mark was martyred in Africa. His corpse was taken to Venice, where it lies in a splendid tomb in St. Mark's Cathedral. Mark is the only friend of Christ whose body still exists. Luke's fate is wrapped in obscurity, some old writers saying that he was martyred in one way, some in another. His reputed tomb is also shown at Ephesus among the ruins.

D. R. Fulton, of Rockcastle, writes: "Under the present condition in State and National affairs I can't see how any man in Kentucky can conscientiously own that he is a republican, there are so many things confronting them. It is better for them to pray for the cliffs and rocks to fall upon them and hide them, rather than cast their vote for a party that was charged with so grave a crime as the leaders of the republican party are accused of at present, and after only a short time, many of whom will be behind the prison walls of our State Penitentiary with a reliable key turned on them for safe keeping and some may get the rope. Though heretofore a republican, I can't cast my vote with a party charged with all these evils, which is detrimental to the common people. Cast your vote for the interest of the people and not for trusts and assassins. There are true and honest men in the republican party who are for justice to all men, but the leaders of the party have deceived the people with false reports and led them to believe them for their own personal gain or greed for office.

I ask in all candor for you to look at the condition the republican party has placed itself in and with an honest heart not to destroy that which year by year is tightening the cords of poverty around the masses of the people of the great nation.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN.

The above is from the latest picture of the next president, from which we had a cut made to order.

CLARENCE COLEMAN'S COGITATIONS CONCLUDED.

BACOLOR, LEXINGTON, P. 1., May 26.—The military is making preparation for the rainy season, four and six months and as going to those garlgons off the coast or railroad line. Of course active military operations can not be carried on during this season, but it is needless to say the insurgents will be kept at a safe distance and much scouting on the part of the Americans will be carried on. Many of the boys have purchased native ponies for the service and the government is issuing a limited number of American horses to each company for scouting purposes.

The rainy season will be on in earnest now in a few weeks. We are quartered here at Bacolor for the rainy season. No better quarters could be found on the island.

It has been very hot here for the past three weeks, the heat being terrible at times and almost unbearable. One is in a state of perspiration from early morning till late at night. May is the hottest month in the year.

I have been doing two men's work the past week. An still company clerk and have also been 'tending to the phone, but I don't do enough in filling both to raise a sweat the hottest day I ever saw in Kentucky. There has been no such thing as keeping cool at present; the 'lectric fan is out of whack and the key to the lee chest lost.

I was down at Manila last week on a three days' leave and of course managed to get filled up once more. There are delicacies and luxuries to be had in Manila, but they are certainly dear. Everything is dear in Manila. Even ice water is at a premium.

I went down on the railroad from San Fernando in preference to going on a steamer from Guagua. One on a pass doesn't have to pay transportation charges. There is as pretty a country between here and Manila as one could find anywhere. An ever changing panorama, rice fields, sugar plantations, corn fields, bamboo and palm groves, swamps, mountains and numerous deep and winding streams. Very picturesque indeed to the artist, but to one with that "tired feeling", and thinking of home—oh! But I am not of that kind. I would like to be at home mightily yet I am not troubling myself as long as democracy is on guard in the "Old Kentucky Home" and my people stay well. I wouldn't be over here 24 hours if I could honestly get away, but as is there's no one troubling and fretting like some I know. Am working for the Manila Press at present and manage to make a little side money.

Matters are comparatively quiet in Bacolor and the Province of Pangasinan at present, yet there are still bands of ladrones prevalent, who keep in hiding in the day. We still "like" it about three nights out of the week and sometime to bring in rifles, hoses, ammunition and a few ladrones. We have captured a good many Kemingtons and Mausers since we have been at Bacolor, also many prisoners. Have six insurgents in the guard house at present and you are right we make them work. Considerable sickness in the regiment, also in the company, but no serious cases. As for myself, I never felt better and had less for one time in my life I have no complaints to make.

Robert Keeney, of Middleburg, has been made first cook of the company. A cook draws the pay of a sergeant.

Ed Keeney, a brother of the above named, and a member of the 3rd Cavalry, has been promoted to a corporality for distinguished bravery in a recent battle near San Fernando de la Union. He writes that he thought it was all over with him, little thinking he would live to get out. There were 30 of the cavalrymen and they were surprised by about 200 well armed insurgents, who were scattered in a church tower and other surrounding buildings. The result was 10 Americans killed and wounded. Loss to the enemy was 60 killed, wounded unknown, but known to be heavy. The insurgents managed to scatter and stand off the Spaniards, but they are soon and wisely finding out that the Americans are the real stuff. 'Nough for the present.

Kingsville, Lincoln county.

The many from here, who attended the Fourth of July celebration in Stanford, report a good time and "the few" who spent the 4th of July in the Creighton grounds constituted a jolly crowd and carried out their program to perfection.

Mrs. W. R. Cundiff commenced her school at Pleasant Point Monday. Wm. Fletcher and Clark Moore, of Somerset, were here Tuesday on business. Corle Francis, Jessio and Newton Sweeney and Milford Smith have gone.

Our town was visited by a "real live burglar" last week. He obtained entrance to Mrs. Pears' house with a skeleton key and "selected" some jewelry, which belonged to Miss Maggie Routine and which he disposed of before leaving town on a freight train. To Rockwood, Tenn., to work.

Mrs. Little Chaw and children, of Louisville, arrived Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker. Little Miss Willie May McIsaac, of Chattanooga, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Pennybacker, was called home to the bedside of her father, who was said to be dying. Claude Pennybacker is at home from Burgin quite sick. Miss Katherine Wells, of Junction City, who has been the charming guest of the Misses Johnson for several weeks, has returned home to the regret of her many friends here. Our postmaster, J. L. Johnson, has returned from his Western trip and is delighted with the idea of locating in Washington.

IS IT RIGHT
FOR AN EDITOR TO RECOMMEND PATENT MEDICINES?

From Sylvan Valley News, Brevard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

LANCASTER.

Messrs. Jno and Ed Norris, of Frankfort, are with their uncle, E. W. Norris.

James Foster and Mrs. Rosa B. Lane were married in the Buckeye section Thursday.

Mrs. Oliver King, a christian lady, died at her home in Bryantsville Wednesday, of cancer.

Sweeney Morgan bought 600 lambs of Colby Jenkins and 900 of John W. L'hour at 5¢ and 5¢.

Ernest Harris, well known as George Arnold's democratic Negro, died Tuesday, having been a sufferer for years. The type made me say that the Missouri sow sold for $15.75, when I wrote $1.55. A period makes a big difference.

Miss Theo Hemphill bought a fine pony and trap in Lexington for $130. Mr. Ed Adams, of Arkansas, bought 10 horses in this and Madison counties at from $55 to $55. J. I. Hamilton said 20 shows, weighing about 80 pounds, to W. H. Kinnaird for $75.

Mr. George Jennings reports that in Alabama, fires with tobacco in them, are built late in the evening, near the milk pens and that when the cows come out of the bushes, they go and stand over the fires until the ticks drop off and then step up to be milked.

Miss Eliza Lusk informs me that examinations of white teachers for school certificates, will take place at her office July 20 and 21 and colored applicants will be examined on July 27 and 28. They are requested to be present on time. On the 20th she will hold a competitive examination for a scholarship in the State College, those between the ages of 16 and 20 years, only, being permitted to take the examination.

It would be playing the part of wisdom for the democrats, in their present conventions next Saturday to select delegates favorable to the nomination of Hon. James D. Black, as his popularity in portions of the 7th district will insure the election of a democratic judge and help to send a democratic to Congress from the 10th. These are matters of paramount importance, to be considered in connection with the fact that he can unite the party all over the State and insure victory in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frisbie, of Wyoming, are expected here today to visit relatives. Mrs. J. L. Warner has been sick for several days. That genial and popular gentleman, Mr. Arch A. McKinney, now of Danville, was here on Monday. It is a mystery to me how such a man can be a republican. J. Wilkes Booth Thompson has gone to Chicago on business. Misses Jessie Powell, of Hustonville, and Georgia West, of Harrodsburg, are guests of Miss Kate Simpson. Henry Benge is sick of fever.

Speaking of spiritual manifestations, a most convincing test was actually made here by some spiritualists. They discarded the use of the slates and sought answers by voice, although no material substance was visible. A song was sung, the room was made dark and the spirit of Josh Blevis, long since deceased, claimed to be present. Amid perfect silence and darkness the question "Does anything interfere with your happiness?" was asked. In response the spirit said "nothing." This should be convincing to relatives and friends to know that he is at any rate, free from the ills and sufferings of this life.

Miss Pattie Eastman, of Columbus, O., is with Misses Lillian and Kate Kinnaird. Squire W. H. Kinnaird went to Atlanta Tuesday. Mr. John E. Storms attended the State Board of Pharmacy at Maysville. Mr. W. I. Williams, who has had experience in that line, served as one of the judges in the contest. Wm. J. Bryan was registered at the Simpson House Wednesday.

Mr. Jesse Mershon, of Corbin, formerly of this county, paid our city a call this week. Mr. Huxley Singleton is still very sick. Mr. George A. McRoberts, who came from our city to Mr. Joseph Burnside's, is improving in health. Misses Gonzella and Florence Byrne, of Selma, Ala., are guests of Misses Julia May and Nannie Gaines. Miss Mary Dunn, of Danville, and Miss Lula Campbell, of Texas, are with Miss Mattie May Robinson. Judge Hemphill and Squire Kinnaird were appointed to have the work finished on the opera house and the Garrard.

$21.50 to St. Paul and return. The Monon route will sell tickets to St. Paul and return at $21.50 from Louisville, Ky., on July 14, 15 and 16, good returning until July 21st. On presentation of a round-trip ticket from St. Paul to any point beyond, adding a value of $5 or more and by payment of 50 cents fee, extension of limit will be granted by the joint agent at St. Paul to Aug. 21st. Particulars of E. H. Bacon, D. P. A., Monon Route, Louisville, Ky.

MacKinnon excursion tickets are now on sale by the Monon Route from Louisville to MacKinnon, Mich., and return, going via Chicago and Marquette, the bay fever cure, and returning direct routes, with liberal limits and stop-over privileges, at rate of $29 from Louisville. Wesley's drug store will be moved to the Joplin building.

Hogs are dying of cholera on East Fork of Skaggs creek.

Attorney James G. Carter, of this place, is the oldest Mason in Rockcastle. He has been a member of the order for 50 years.

Hansford and Skaggs Creek Valley will have telephone connection at an early date. The line to Wildie and Brush Creek will be commenced next Monday.

Oats, corn and grass in this county are better than for years. The acreage put in corn is much larger also. The potato crop is immense. All crops seem to be doing well.

The Nicholasville street fair managers have engaged the Mt. Vernon band to furnish the music. The Harboursville fair as well as other enterprises are negotiating with this excellent band for their services.

The Woodstock Telephone Co. has completed their line from Eubanks to Mt. Vernon and has the following inter stations on their route: Floyd's Switch, Estesburg, Woodstock, Watson, Walnut Grove, Level Green and Wadd.

Democrats are requested to attend the precinct conventions tomorrow and the county convention, which meets at Mt. Vernon, Monday, 19th, for the purpose of sending delegates to the Lexington convention to nominate a candidate for governor.

In the death of James Huston, who lost his life in the calvary bridge disaster, the railroad company was not called upon to pay damages. J. P. Huston, the father, refused to accept money. Said it looked too much like accepting blood money. The company, however, insisted upon paying the burial and some other expenses. The deceased left property to the value of $6,000 or $7,000.

Henry Brannaman, a prominent farmer of the Wildie neighborhood, was here Wednesday and said Samuel Cope, aged 18, of the Seafood Cane neighborhood, died Sunday last from the effects of a bite on the lips from a bug or insect a few days before his death. His lips and face swelled to enormous proportions and a part of his face sluffed off before death relieved him. Mrs. Robert Cook, Bogie Phillips and four or five others are said to have been bitten by a similar bug and are suffering. Two of the supposed bugs that causes the trouble were caught. They are about two inches in length with a body shaped like a wasp and have a double set of wings.

Mrs. Judge McClure and sister, Mrs. Dr. Brown, of Parksville, Miss Bessie McClure and visitor, Miss Mamie Ferguson, and Miss Annie Thompson spent Tuesday very pleasantly in the country with Mrs. Will Henderson. Mrs. Bob Thompson and three beautiful children arrived Saturday to visit Mrs. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Wm. Poynter. Dr. A. E. Ewers and family will leave Monday for Lake Winona, where they will spend the remainder of the season at their beautiful summer home. Mrs. Willis Adams, little daughter, Elizabeth Peyton, and Ernest Ewers returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. Adams' sister, Mrs. Jack Adams, at Paint Lick. Rev. Moore, of Harboursville, spent Sunday and Monday with friends here. Mrs. Jones and little daughter, Zula, returned to their home at Middleboro Monday. Miss Rosa Gentry was with friends in Pittsburg the first of the week. Mrs. James Leavell, of Bryantsville, stopped off here for a day with relatives on her return from London.

Fritz Krueger is in Shelbyville superintending a building. His son, Will, is at Manchester making brick for another building and the other two boys are looking after the work on Hook & Adams' big building, which they will have ready to turn over to the owners Oct. 1st. Bud Reynolds was in from Bee Lick. Miss Delora Brown, of Texas, is visiting Mrs. Susan Henderson. J. J. Cook is making a hand and a half in the county clerk's office. D. C. Poynter is making a working model of his patent wagon wheel. Dr. Davis says there is much sickness on Skaggs creek. Attorney J. A. Sullivan and Judge Chenault, of Richmond, who have been overhauling old records in clerk's office here for the past two weeks, will probably finish their work this week. They keep two or three assistants busy on the big job, especially on the partially burned and scorched records. Our people have come to almost look upon these gentlemen as citizens and would be glad if they were in fact.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New York City, this prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A faithful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors, but steadily grew worse until forced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, the bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of rheumatism. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50¢ and 1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Treat Lungs free at Penny's Drug Store.

An still company clerk and have also been tending to the phone, but I don't do enough in filling both to raise a sweat the hottest day I ever saw in Kentucky. There has been no such thing as keeping cool at present; the electric fan is out of whack and the key to the ice chest lost.

I was down at Manila last week on a three days' leave and of course managed to get filled up once more. There are dedications and luxuries to be had in Manila, but they are certainly dear. Everything is dear in Manila. Even ice water is at a premium.

I went down on the railroad from San Fernando in preference to going on a steamer from Guagua. One on a pass doesn't have to pay transportation charges. There is as pretty a country between here and Manila as one could find anywhere. An ever changing panorama, rice fields, sugar plantations, corn fields, bamboo and palm groves, swamps, mountains and numerous deep and winding streams. Very picturesque indeed to the artist, but to one with that "tired feeling", and thinking of home—well, but I am not of that kind. I would like to be at home mightily well, yet I am not troubling myself as long as democracy is on guard in the "Old Kentucky Home" and my people stay well. I wouldn't be over here 21 hours if I could honorably get away, but as it is there's no one troubling and fretting like some I know. Am working for the Manila Press at present and manage to make a little side money.

Matters are comparatively quiet in Bacolor and the Province of Pangasinan at present, yet there are still bands of hidrones prevalent, who keep in hiding in the day. We still "hike" it about three nights out of the week and continue to bring in rifles, boxes, ammunition and a few ladrones. We have captured a good many Remingtons and Mausers since we have been at Bacolor, also many prisoners. Have six insurgents in the guard house at present and you are right we make them work. Considerable sickness in the regiment, also in this company, but no serious cases. As for myself, I never felt better and had less for one time in my life I have no complaints to make.

Robert Kenney, of Middleburg, has been made first cook of the company. A cook draws the pay of a sergeant.

Ed Kenney, a brother of the above named, and a member of the 3rd Cavalry, has been promoted to a corporals for distinguished bravery in a recent battle near San Fernando de la Union. Kenney had his horse shot from under him, but he escaped without a scratch. He writes that he thought it was all over with him, little thinking he would live to get out. There were 30 of the cavalrymen and they were surprised by about 200 well armed insurgents, who were secreted in a church tower and other surrounding buildings. The result was 10 Americans killed and wounded. Loss to the enemy was 60 killed, wounded unknown, but known to be heavy. The insurgents managed to scatter and off the Spaniards, but they are soon and wisely finding out that the Americans are the real stuff. "Nough for the present."

CLARENCE COLEMAN.

Kingsville, Lincoln county.

The many from here, who attended the Fourth of July celebration in Stanford, report a good time and "the few" who spent the 4th of July in the Creighton grounds constituted a jolly crowd and carried out their program to perfection.

Mrs. W. R. Cundiff commenced her school at Pleasant Point Monday. Wm. Fletcher and Clark Moore, of Somerset, were here Tuesday on business. Corle Francis, Jesse and Newton Sweeney and Milford Smith have gone.

Our town was visited by a "real live burglar" last week. He obtained entrance to Mrs. Peal's house with a skeleton key and "selected" some jewelry, which belonged to Miss Maggie Routine and which he disposed of before leaving town on a freight train.

Lockwood, Tenn., to work. Mrs. Lattie Chaw and children, of Louisville, arrived Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker. Little Miss Willie May McIsaac, of Chattanooga, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Pennybacker, was called home to the bedside of her father, who was said to be dying. Claude Pennybacker is at home from Burgin quite sick. Miss Katherine Wells, of Junction City, who has been the charming guest of the Misses Johnson for several weeks, has returned home to the regret of her many friends here. Our postmaster, J. L. Johnson, has returned from his Western trip and is delighted with the idea of locating in Washington.

IS IT RIGHT

FOR AN EDITOR TO RECOMMEND PATENT MEDICINES?

From Sylvan Valley News, Harvard, N. C.

It may be a question whether the editor of a newspaper has the right to publicly recommend any of the various proprietary medicines which flood the market, yet as a preventive of suffering we feel it a duty to say a good word for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. We have known and used this medicine in our family for twenty years and have always found it reliable. In many cases a dose of this remedy would save hours of suffering while a physician is awaited. We do not believe in depending implicitly on any medicine for a cure, but we do believe that if a bottle of Chamberlain's Diarrhoea Remedy were kept on hand and administered at the inception of an attack much suffering might be avoided and in very many cases the presence of a physician would not be required. At least this has been our experience during the past twenty years. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Sweeney Morgan bought 600 lambs of Colby Jenkins and 100 of John W. Poor at 5¢ and 5¢c.

Ernest Harris, well known as George Arnold's democratic Negro, died Tuesday, having been a sufferer for years. The type made me say that the Missouri sow sold for $15.75, when I wrote $1.575. A period makes a big difference.

Miss Theo Hemphill bought a line pony and trap in Lexington for $150. Mr. Ed Adams, of Arkansas, bought 19 horses in this and Madison counties at from $55 to $85. J. I. Hamilton sold 20 shoats, weighing about 80 pounds, to W. H. Kinnaird for $75.

Mr. George Jennings reports that in Alabama, fires with tobacco in them, are built late in the evening, near the milk pens and that when the cows come out of the bushes, they go and stand over the fires until the ticks drop off and then step up to be milked.

Miss Eliza Lusk informs me that examinations of white teachers for school certificates, will take place at her office July 20 and 21 and colored applicants will be examined on July 27 and 28. They are requested to be present on time. On the 20th she will hold a competitive examination for a scholarship in the State College, those between the ages of 16 and 20 years, only, being permitted to take the examination.

It would be playing the part of wisdom for the democrats, in their present conventions next Saturday to select delegates favorable to the nomination of Hon. James D. Black, as his popularity in portions of the 7th district will insure the election of a democratic judge and help to send a democratic to Congress from the 19th. These are matters of paramount importance, to be considered in connection with the fact that he can unite the party all over the State and insure victory in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Frisbie, of Wyoming, are expected here today to visit relatives. Mrs. J. L. Warner has been sick for several days. That genial and popular gentleman, Mr. Arch A. McKinney, now of Danville, was here on Monday. It is a mystery to me how such a man can be a republican. J. Wilkes Booth Thompson has gone to Chicago on business. Misses Jesse Powell, of Hustonville, and Georgia West, of Harrodsburg, are guests of Miss Kate Simpson. Henry Benze is sick of fever.

Speaking of spiritual manifestations, a most convincing test was actually made here by some spiritualists. They discarded the use of the state and sought answers by voice, although no material substance was visible. A song was sung, the room was made dark and the spirit of Josh Belevins, long since deceased, claimed to be present. Amid perfect silence and darkness the question "Does anything interfere with your happiness?" was asked. In response the spirit said "nothing." This should be consoling to relatives and friends to know that he is at any rate, free from the ills and sufferings of this life.

Miss Pattle Eastman, of Columbus, O., is with Misses Lillian and Kate Kinnaird. Squire W. H. Kinnaird went to Altamont Tuesday. Mr. John E. Stormes attended the State Board of Pharmacy at Maysville. In the death of James Huston, who lost his life in the calvary bridge disaster, the railroad company was not called upon to pay damages. J. P. Huston, the father, refused to accept money. Said it looked too much like accepting blood money. The company, however, insisted upon paying the burial and some other expenses. The deceased left property to the value of $1,000 or $1,000.

Henry Hranaman, a prominent farmer of the Wildie neighborhood, was here Wednesday and said Samuel Cope, aged 18, of the Scafield Cane neighborhood, died Sunday last from the effects of a bite on the lips from a bug or insect a few days before his death. His lips and face swelled to enormous proportions and a part of his face stuffed off before death relieved him. Mrs. Robert Cook, Hogle Phillips and four or five others are said to have been bitten by a similar bug and are suffering. Two of the supposed bugs that causes the trouble were caught. They are about two inches in length with a body shaped like a wasp and have a double set of wings.

His son, Will, is at Manchester making brick for another building and the other two boys are looking after the work on Houk & Adams' big building, which they will have ready to turn over to the owners Oct. 1st. Bud Reynolds was in from Lee Lick. Miss Delora Brown, of Texas, is visiting Mrs. Susan Henderson. J. J. Cook is making a hand and a half in the county clerk's office. D. C. Poynter is making a working model of his patent wagon wheel. Dr. Davis says there is much sickness on Skaggs creek. Attorney J. A. Sullivan and Judge Chennault, of Richmond, who have been overhauling old records in clerk's office here for the past two weeks, will probably finish their work this week. They keep two or three assistants busy on the big job, especially on the partially burned and scorched records. Our people have come to almost look upon these gentlemen as citizens and would be glad if they were in fact.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timothy Henderson, given Mrs. George Long, of New Spriestown, Ohio, prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had long kept her awake every night. She had tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle wholly cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of rheumatism. Such cures are positive proof of the nobleness merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only one and 25c. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at Penny's Drug Store.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
Of Nebraska.

For Vice-President,
ADLAI E. STEVENSON,
Of Illinois.

For Congress,
GEORGE G. GILBERT,
Of Shelby.

AT a conference of republican leaders in Louisville this week, it was decided that McKenzie Moas, a bolter and a turncoat, is the proper man for the party to nominate in the 3d district to get the Brown vote and that Billy Breckinridge, a democrat until he was beaten for office and since the meanness republican in the lot, should have the track in the 7th. It was also decided that Gov. Bradley is the only man that can redeem the 8th district and that he must make the race. The governor has served his time in the fruitless endeavor to have this district send him to Congress and he will doubtless let some other fellow get the walloping Gilbert will give him. The convention to nominate a governor will be a short affair, as the auditorium at Louisville was engaged for only three hours. That's long enough, however, to enact the out and dried program to nominate Yerkes and covet about civil liberty.

MATTERS are in a very bad muddle in the 7th district. Trouble over the delegations from Owen caused a split in the convention at Paris, the regular convention nominating Hon. South Trimble and the rumpers naming W. B. Moody. Fayette, Oldham, Henry and Owen only were represented in the latter layout. The convention was the hottest in the history of the State and several fights were narrowly averted. Unless the tangle is submitted to the State committee, as it likely will be, there is danger of the republican program being carried out and the "Un-speakable Breckinridge," as James Andrew Scott referred to him in his speech, again being sent to Congress. It would have been better to have let the committee's first action for a primary stand, as we thought at the time. It is never safe to swap horses in the middle of a stream.

THE republican party in convention assembled having shown its sympathy for assassin suspects and in effect endorsed assassination as a means of government, our beautiful and accomplished friend, Hon. John W. Yerkes, is placed in a devil of a fix. If he answers our question whether he will pardon the assassins of Gov. Goebel if he is elected governor, affirmatively, no man with any pretensions to decency or honesty will vote for him and if he says he will not pardon them the thick and thin members of his party won't support him. So it will be seen that Brer Yerkes' only hope is to continue to do the clam act, as he has so far with reference to the questions put to him by this paper.

SIMON PICKLE, arrested at Middleboro, seems to be in a pickle, with the prospect of being pickled for some time. When arrested for soliciting insurance without license, it was discovered that he is a bigamist. Two of his wives are at various points of his pilgrimage. In his grip were found a license to preach, teacher's certificate from Franklin county, Ky., four marriage certificates, a deck of cards, bottle of whiskey and a pistol. He is what might be called a jack at all trades and ready to work at any.

DEMOCRATS should not let crops or other demands prevent them from attending the precinct conventions Saturday afternoon, 14th, to express their will in the gubernatorial contest. We are very decidedly for Mr. Black, believing that he is the strongest man, because of his ability to unite the factions, but we shall fall out with no one who thinks otherwise. Let us all for once put aside personal feelings and act solely for the good and for the success of the party.

HON. JAMES D. BLACK has made a pretty active canvass of the State and has created a fine impression everywhere. He of all the announced candidates seems to be eminently the one to lead us to victory this fall, for he can unite the factions as no other of them can. Besides he is honest, capable and deserving and would make a model executive. Nominate him and let him send the republican joy and pride, the Danville aristocrat to grass.

JAY county, Ind., is properly named. At least some of its inhabitants, those who honor Fugitive John, the promoter of assassination, are jays, not to characterize them in harsher terms. People who make heroes out of criminals are either criminals at heart themselves or have no better sense than to regard one who has had the life of a fellow man taken as one to be proud of.

CALVIN POWERS swears that Judge Yost told him to flee to the mountains of Hepelam. If the judge would only also flee to where the whang doodle mourneth for its first born, Kentucky would be better off.

THE prohibitionists terrifically arraigned McKinley. Read that portion of their platform which deals with him and which appears on our 4th page.

AFTER filing an affidavit for a continuance several days in length, and resorting to every technicality known to not over conscientious criminal lawyers, the counsel for Caleb Powers, charged with the most heinous offense under the law, finally submitted a Taylor paragon as a bar to further prosecution. Of course Judge Cantrell would not recognize the pardon of a usurper and an alleged accessory before the fact of the same crime with which Powers is charged, and deciding that the defense had not used sufficient diligence to get ready for trial, overruled the motion for a continuance. So after three days of legal sparring the case went to trial at 4 P. M. Wednesday and the examination of jurors began. For a man who claims to be innocent and for lawyers who have screamed through their assassinations that they were ready and anxious to face the music, the quibbling shows fear of a fair trial and distrust for the ultimate result. It has all along been said that delay was the purpose of the prosecution, but Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin and Col. Campbell gave the lie to it as soon as possible and threw the assassination lawyers into confusion. Messrs. Franklin and Campbell are holding up for the law against Brown, Sims, Denny and a score of lesser lights, and backed by right and justice are more than a match for them all.

MR. WATTERSON has a well-timed appeal in yesterday's Courier Journal to the people to assert themselves tomorrow against the combine of money and murder, seeking to work its way to glory through the agency of the fungus Negro vote, the multiplied desperado vote of the feud counties, the purchasable vote of the cities and towns and the organs of assassination.

RATS desert a sinking ship and the way prominent republicans are deserting the party of force, fraud, trusts and combines shows in what a bad condition the old bulk is in.

POLITICIANS AND POLITICS.

Bryan & Stevenson will be notified of their nomination at Indianapolis Aug. 8. Gov. Henton McMillin has withdrawn from the race for United States Senator in Tennessee.

Gov. Poynter, of Nebraska, says Bryan is certain to have 220 electoral votes. He concedes McKinley but 131.

President McKinley was notified today at Canton of his nomination, and made a keynote speech accepting.

The West Virginia republicans in session at Charleston nominated A. B. White for governor and a full State ticket and adopted a platform.

Quo warranto proceedings have been instituted at Louisville by Judge Wilson against Judge Brown to decide the 27th district judgeship contest.

Senator Lindsay says that if free silver had been left out of the platform and the Goebel law was repealed there would be no trouble about democratic getting together.

The prohibition party is making a record in bringing unique and picturesque names before the public. The party's nominee for governor of Illinois is Vischer Vere Barnes.

The New York World claims to have discovered a plot to assassinate President McKinley. It was concocted by a group of Spanish and Cuban conspirators, with headquarters in New York.

The democratic committee of the 11th district met at Corbin and decided to hold a convention at Lexington July 18, the day before the State convention, to nominate a candidate for Congress.

Henry U. Johnson, the former republican Congressman from the Richmond, Ind., district, who had the courage to attack the administration on the floor of the House for its sins, has come out for Bryan on the great overhauled issue of republic against empire.

These are the announced candidates for governor: Gov. J. C. W. Beckham, Nelson county; Hon. James D. Black, Knox county; Judge W. B. Smith, Madison county; Gen. Joseph Lewis, Franklin county; Judge James P. Tarrin, Kenton county; Hon. James Garrett, Trigg county.

There is a notable revival of white-capping in Indiana, and it is not surprising after the example Gov. Mount has given of defiance to the laws. His action is exactly on the same principle as that of all mobs. When he refuses to return indicted criminals for trial, he simply asserts his superiority to law.

In his speech to the visiting delegations at Lincoln, Mr. Bryan said: "When you get to the polls to vote, remember that you are an American citizen. Remember that your vote may determine the nation's position and that the nation will, in a large measure, determine the public opinion of the world on the doctrine that governments come up from the people."

Cleveland is surprised and disappointed with the democratic platform and says: "On the basis of such a declaration the method by which the party is to be harmonized and democracy is to gain the confidence and support of our thinking and reflective citizens is beyond my comprehension." As regards the democratic ticket Mr. Cleveland would have nothing to say.

Urey Woodson, who has just returned from headquarters in Chicago, says: "Things are looking very bright for Bryan. This time four years ago we were receiving daily reports of revolts. Now our forces are getting together. Many papers which refused to support Bryan in 1896 are in line now. Then we didn't have money to pay for telegrams. Now we have some for expenses and will get more. Our organization is almost perfect."

Listen to these words that were spoken by Abraham Lincoln, years and years ago: "I see in the near future a crisis approaching that unnerves me and causes me to tremble for the safety of my country. As a result of the war, corporations have been enthroned, and an era of corruption in high places will follow, and the money power will endeavor to prolong its reign by working upon the prejudices of the people until all the wealth is aggregated in a few hands and the republic destroyed. I feel at this moment more anxiety for the safety of my country than ever before, even in the midst of war. God grant that my suspicions may prove groundless."—Abraham Lincoln.

Hon. Letcher Owsley, of Lancaster, one of the best posted politicians in Central Kentucky, arrived at the Grand Tuesday. Of the governor's race he said to the Enquirer: "Unless one of the announced candidates goes into the State convention with enough votes to nominate him on the first ballot McKenney will be nominated certain. Our county, Garrard, is for McKenney first if he will accept the nomination, otherwise it is for Black second; that is also the sentiment in the counties of Lincoln and Garrard alongside of us. McKenney is the solution of the serious situation in which we stand. He would not only be elected, but would add strength to the electoral ticket and carry the Congressman in his close Congressional district through unquestionably."

THE POWERS CASE.

ONLY FIVE JURORS OBTAINED.

GEORGETOWN, July 12.—Although a special venire of 100 men were on hand today from which to choose the Powers jury, only five were secured, four democrats and one independent. The defense has eight challenges left and the prosecution but three. It is now believed that the jury will be certainly completed tomorrow.

Detective Armstrong says he has discovered evidence proving that Jim Howard is the man who fired the shot that killed Goebel.

The State agrees to pay the expenses of the defense's witnesses in the Caleb Powers case at Georgetown, Powers swearing he was too poor to do so.

An attempt to spirit Finley Anderson, of Harboursville, witness for the Commonwealth, from Georgetown was made, but Arthur Goebel got on to it and succeeded in having him brought back. It is said that he knows even more damaging things against the conspirators than Golden.
